

Reflection Daffodils

We have created this template with space for the children to draw a picture of someone special to them (or a pet) that they would like to think about and celebrate the memory of in the centre area.

Then encourage the children to write words that describe some of the special characteristics of their special person on each of the petals.

Fix the pictures to the window or hang from the ceiling as a way of helping them to reflect and celebrate lost loved ones.

